RE: Educational Opportunity

Ever wondered who owns a parcel of land? Ever needed to check for water rights information? How about snow pack, water flows, storage levels? These are just a few of the vast questions that can be addressed using the Klamath County Decision Support System. KlamathDSS is a comprehensive web based package that allows users to answer an array of questions and assist in the decision making process.

Klamath County funded the development of this tool and is supporting its use. The web site went public last fall, yet only limited promotion has occurred. Klamath County Public Works, Houston Engineering, Dan Keppen and Associates, and OSU KBREC are partnering to promote this tool to Agricultural Users. The following workshop will provide users background information needed in order to use the tool. Please plan to attend this free educational workshop.
